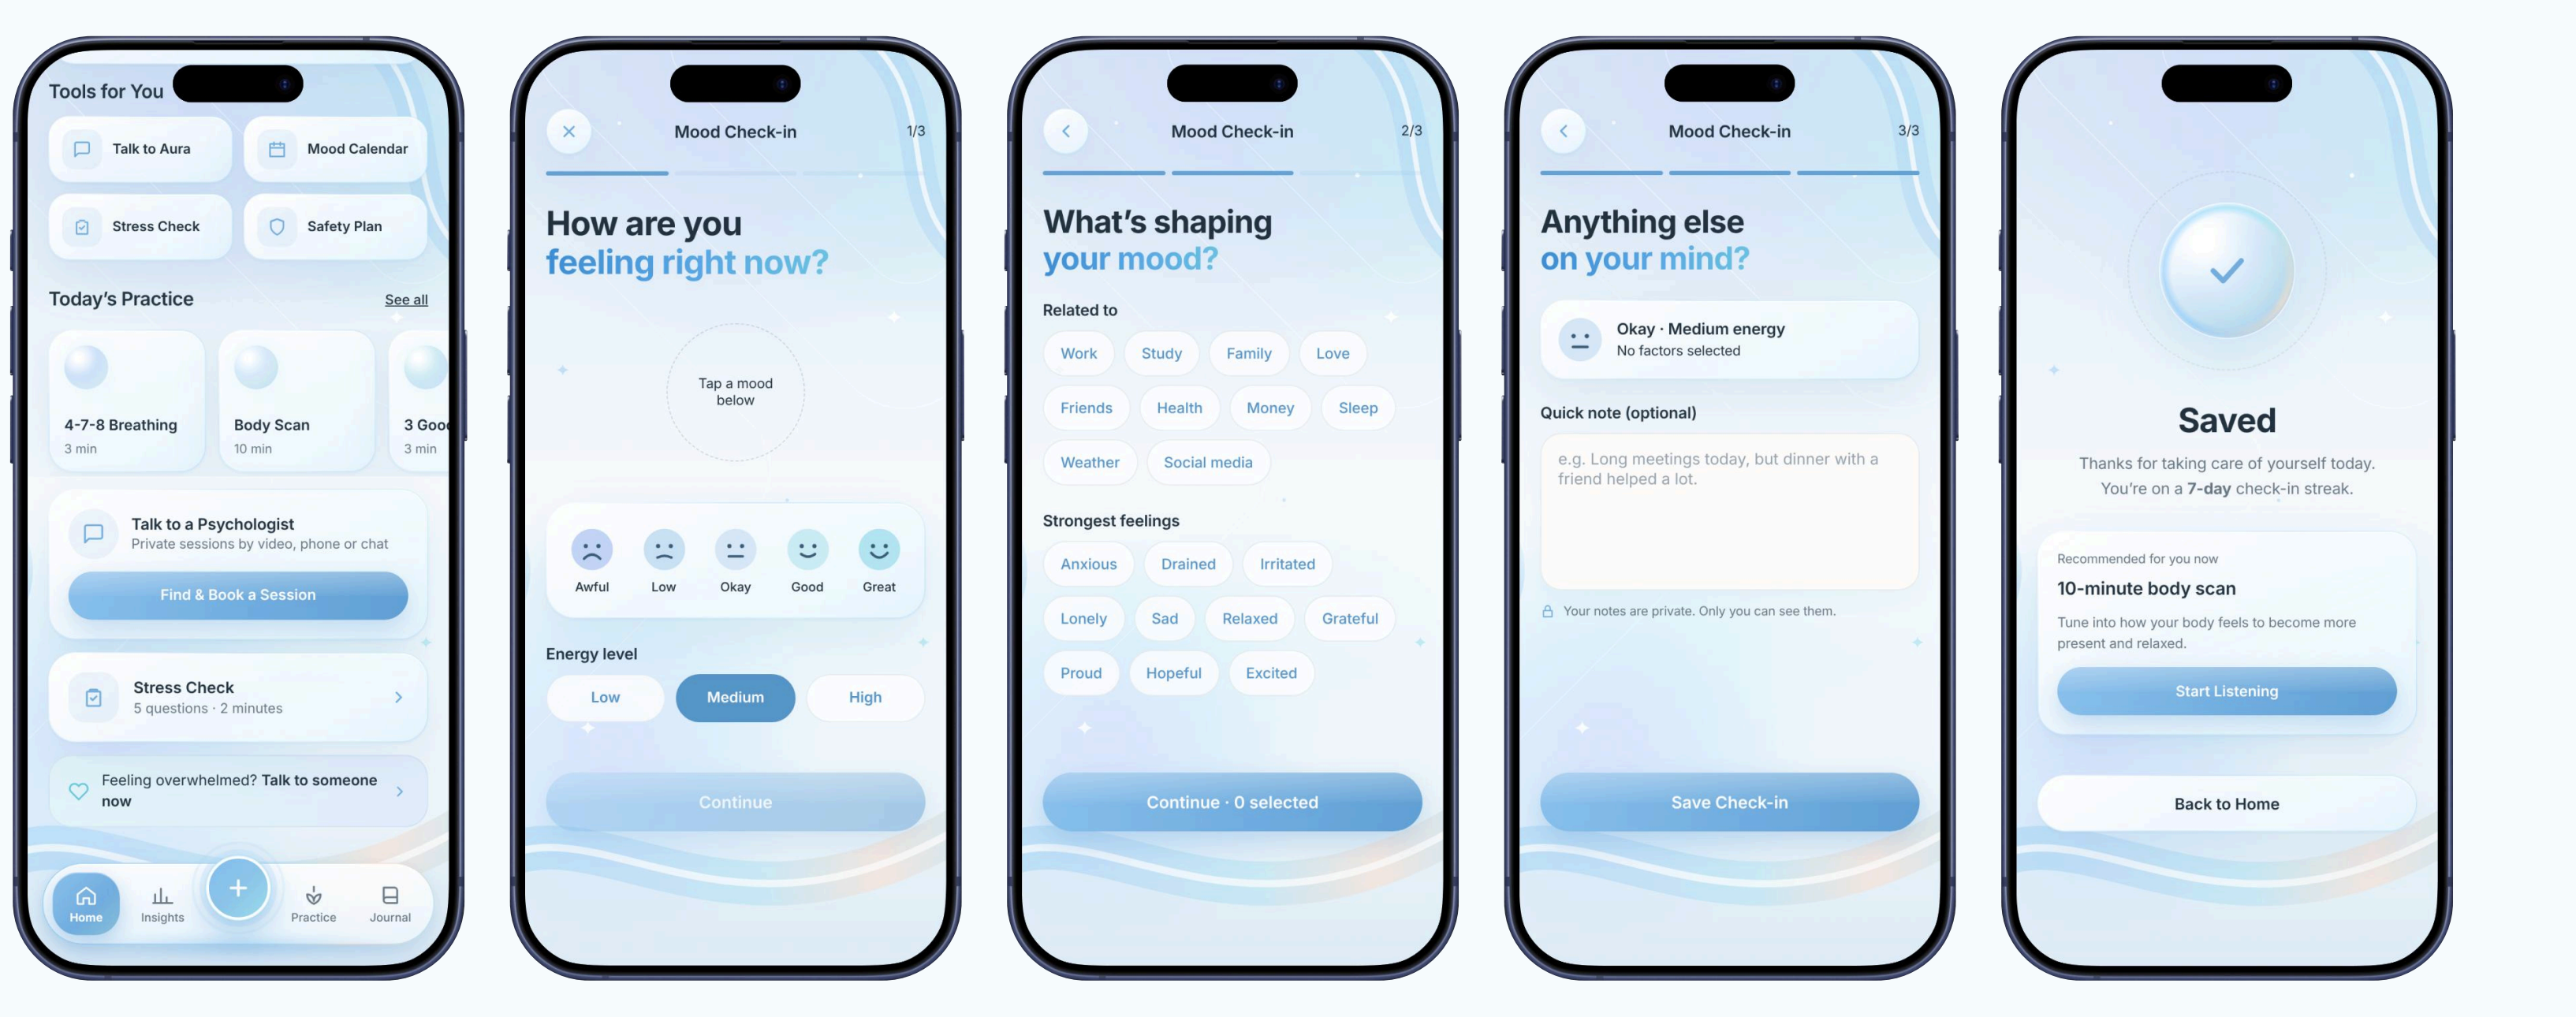
How's Your Mind Feeling Today?

Wellbeing Score — Your mental health today — 72/100 — Good

Stress Level 38% — Low · Improving

Sleep 7.3h — Last night · Deep

AI Mind Summary: Stress drops on days you sleep 7+ hours. Keep protecting your bedtime.



How are you feeling right now?

What's shaping your mood?

Anything else on your mind?

Okay · Medium energy — No factors selected

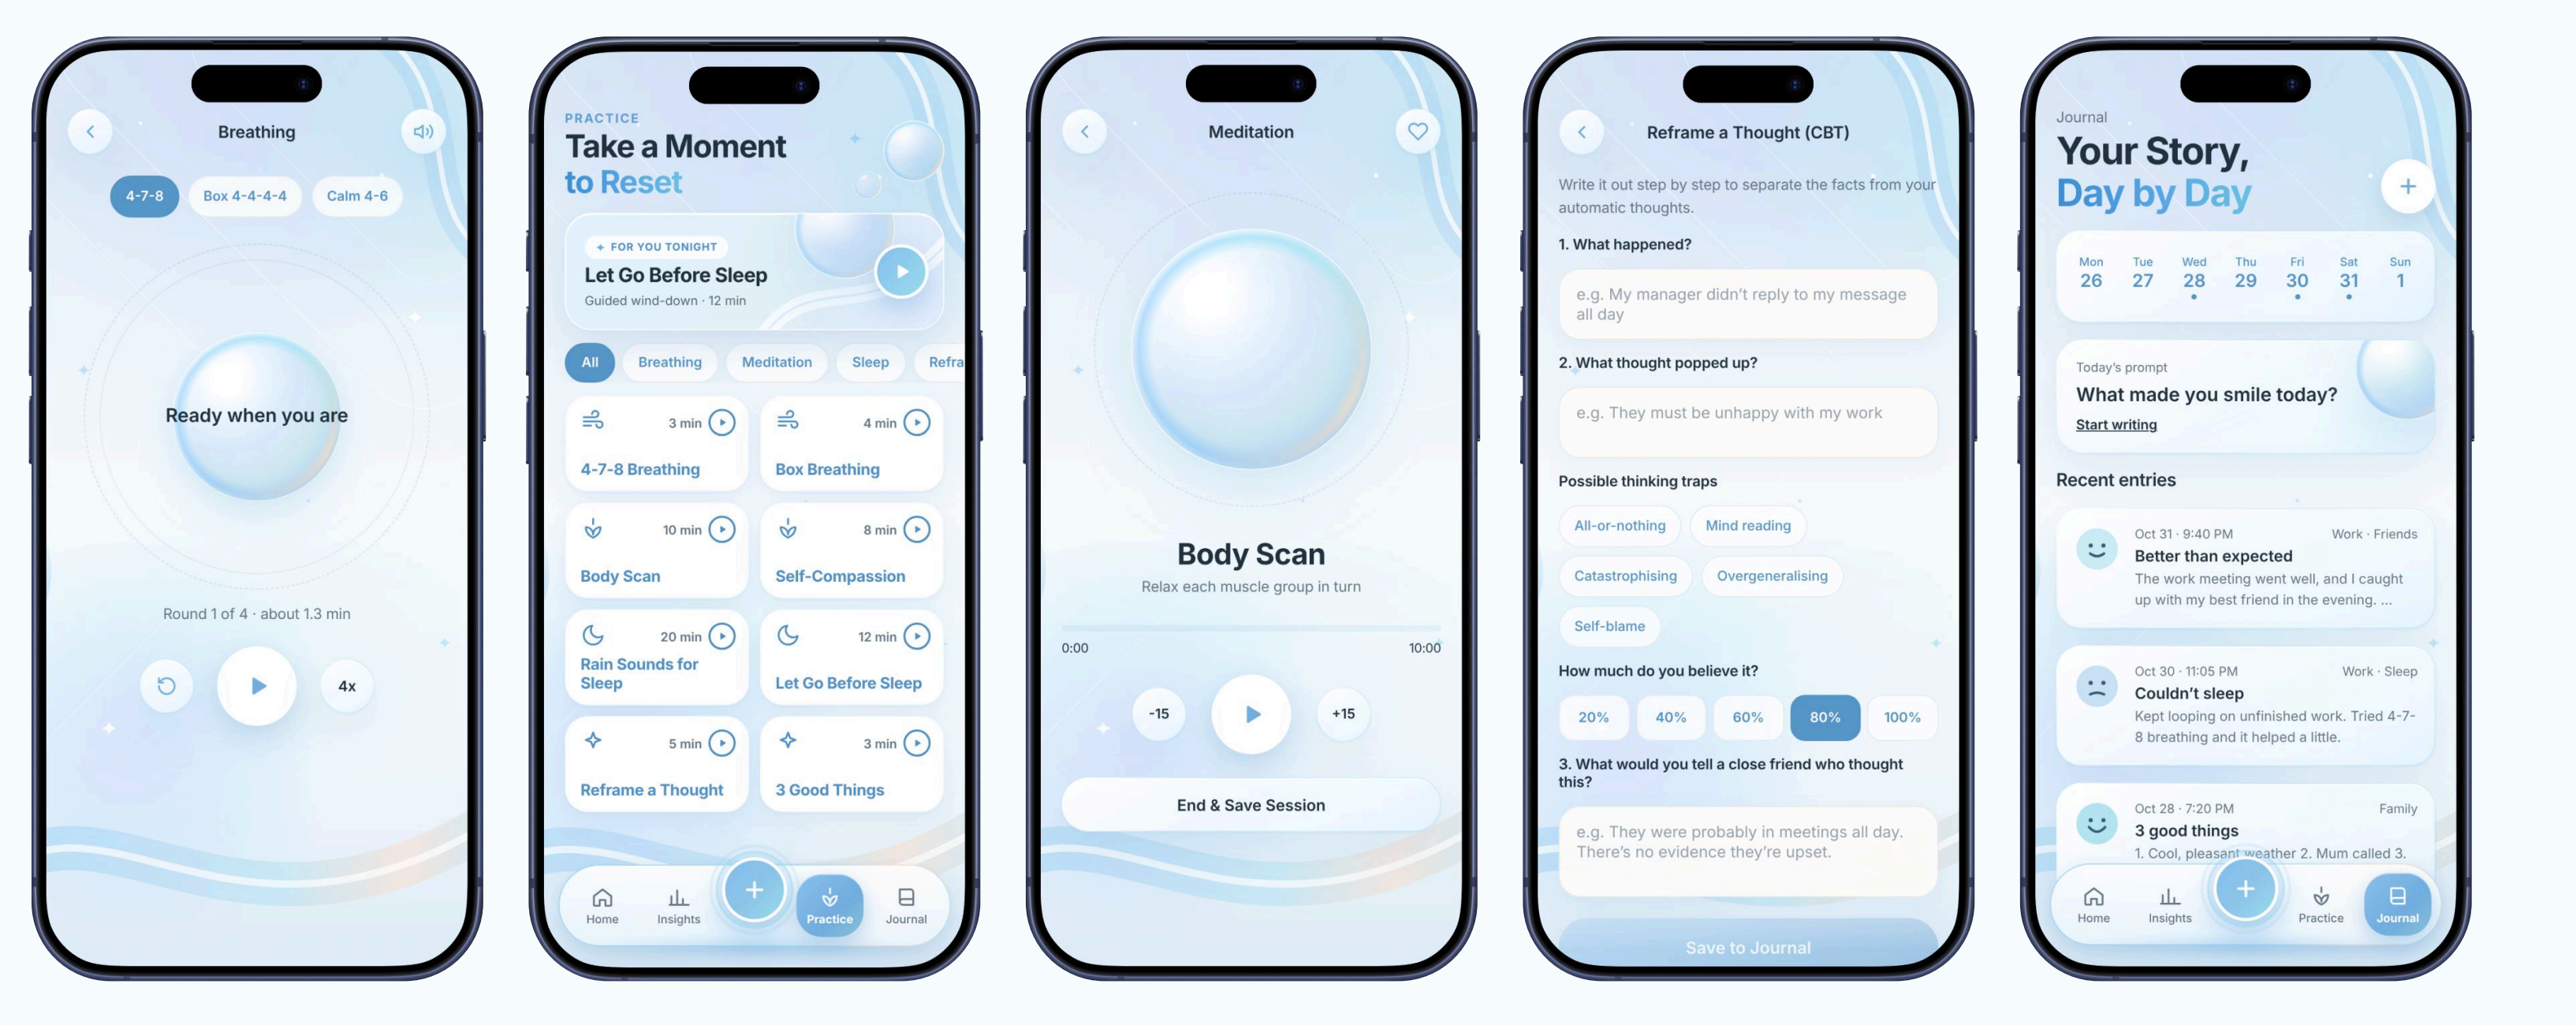
e.g. Long meetings today, but dinner with a friend helped a lot.

Your notes are private. Only you can see them.

Saved

Thanks for taking care of yourself today. You're on a 7-day check-in streak.

Recommended for you now: 10-minute body scan — Tune into how your body feels to become more present and relaxed.



Take a Moment to Reset

Let Go Before Sleep — Guided wind-down · 12 min

Body Scan — Relax each muscle group in turn

Reframe a Thought (CBT)

Write it out step by step to separate the facts from your automatic thoughts.

1. What happened? — e.g. My manager didn't reply to my message all day

2. What thought popped up? — e.g. They must be unhappy with my work

How much do you believe it? 80%

3. What would you tell a close friend who thought this? — e.g. They were probably in meetings all day. There's no evidence they're upset.

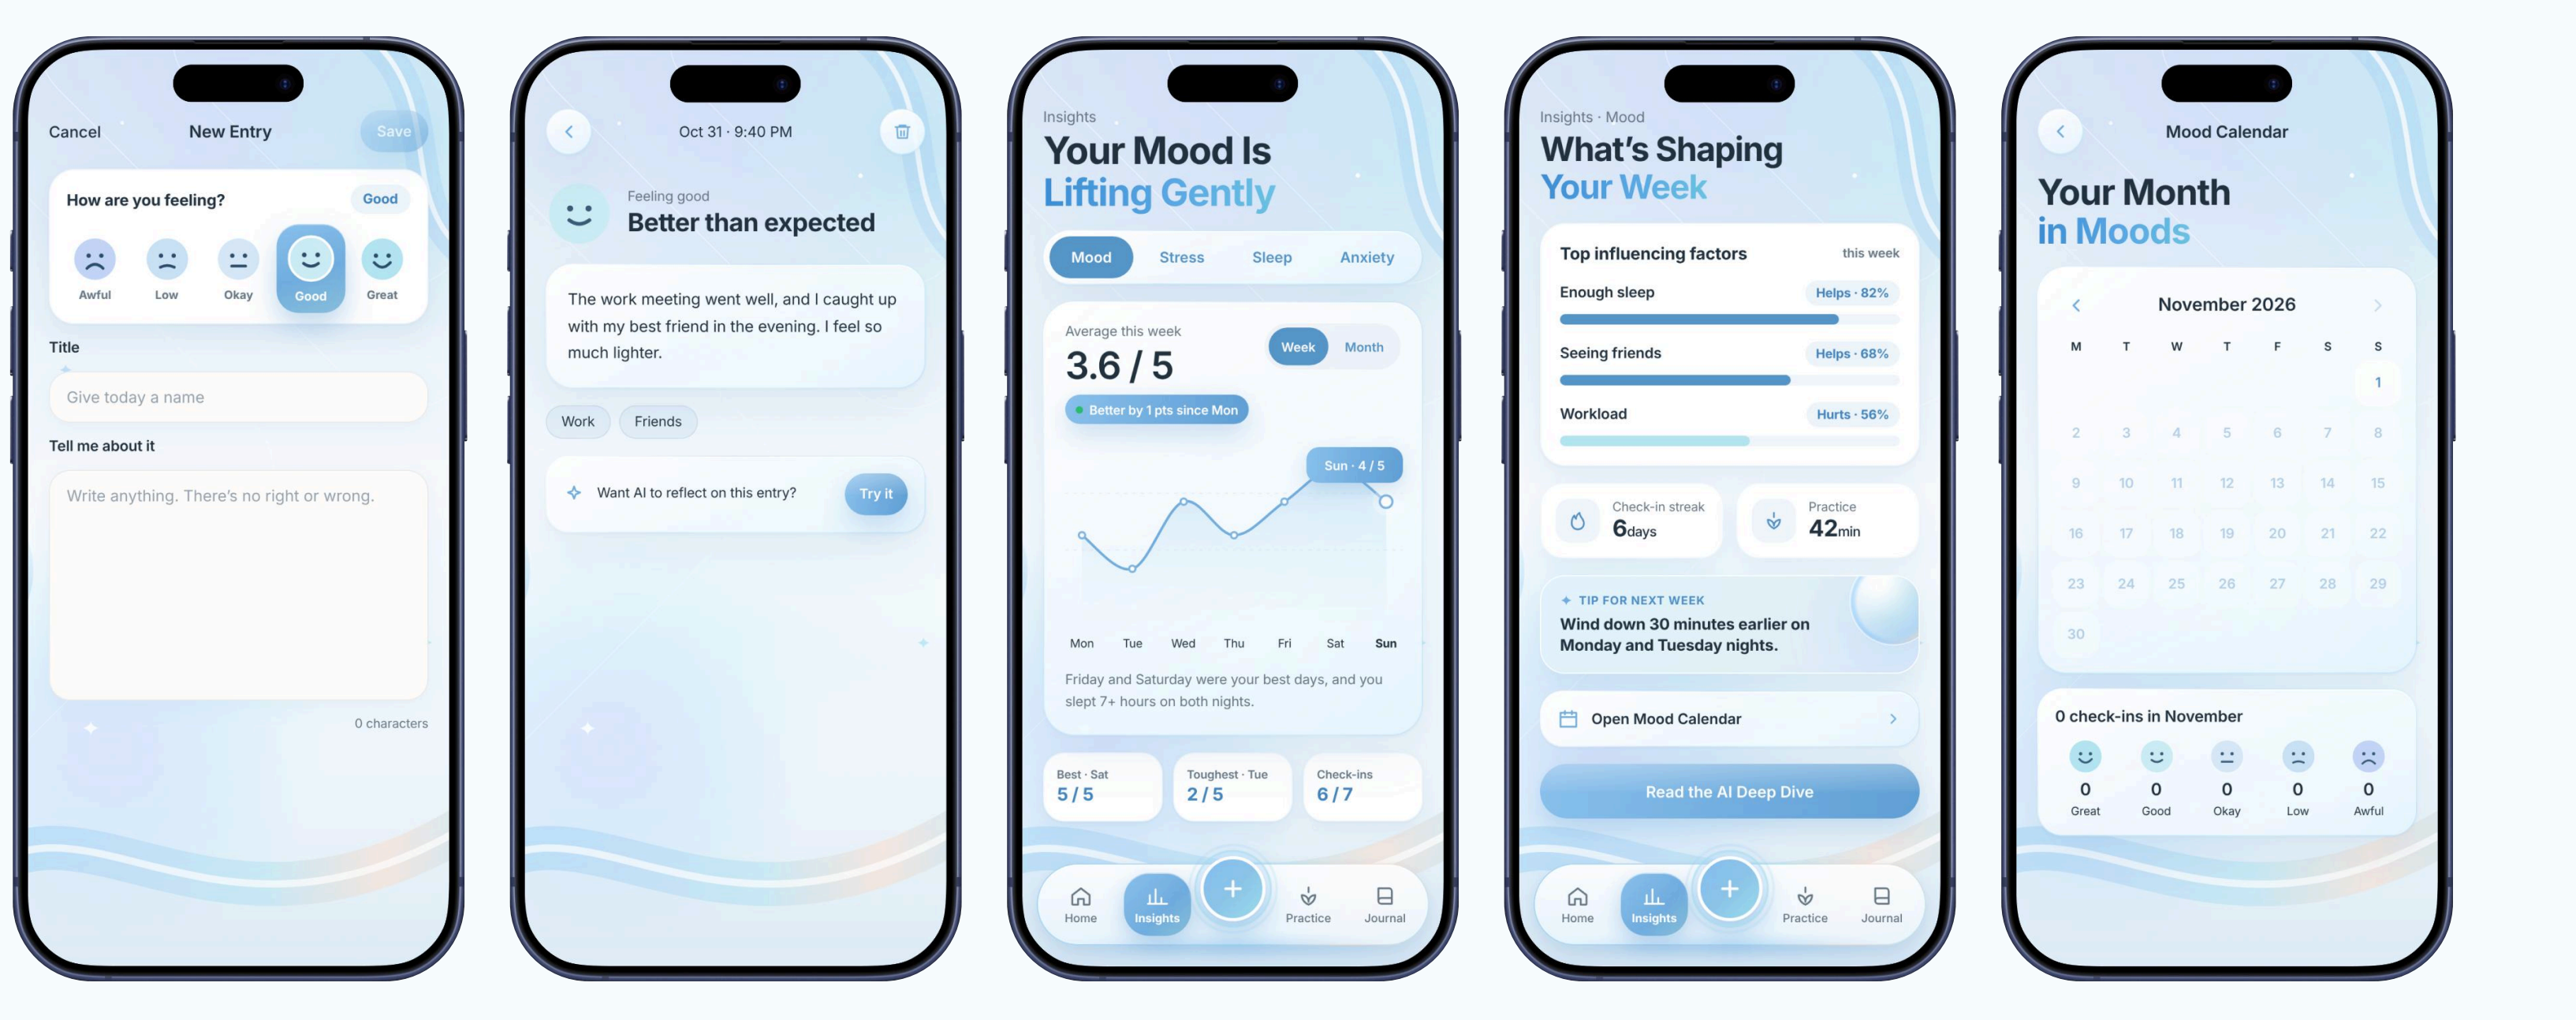
Your Story, Day by Day

Today's prompt: What made you smile today?

Oct 31 · 9:40 PM — Work · Friends — Better than expected — The work meeting went well, and I caught up with my best friend in the evening. ...

Oct 30 · 11:05 PM — Work · Sleep — Couldn't sleep — Kept looping on unfinished work. Tried 4-7-8 breathing and it helped a little.

Oct 28 · 7:20 PM — Family — 3 good things — 1. Cool, pleasant weather 2. Mum called 3.



Feeling good — Better than expected

The work meeting went well, and I caught up with my best friend in the evening. I feel so much lighter.

Your Mood Is Lifting Gently

Average this week 3.6 / 5 — Better by 1 pts since Mon

Friday and Saturday were your best days, and you slept 7+ hours on both nights.

Best · Sat 5 / 5 — Toughest · Tue 2 / 5 — Check-ins 6 / 7

What's Shaping Your Week

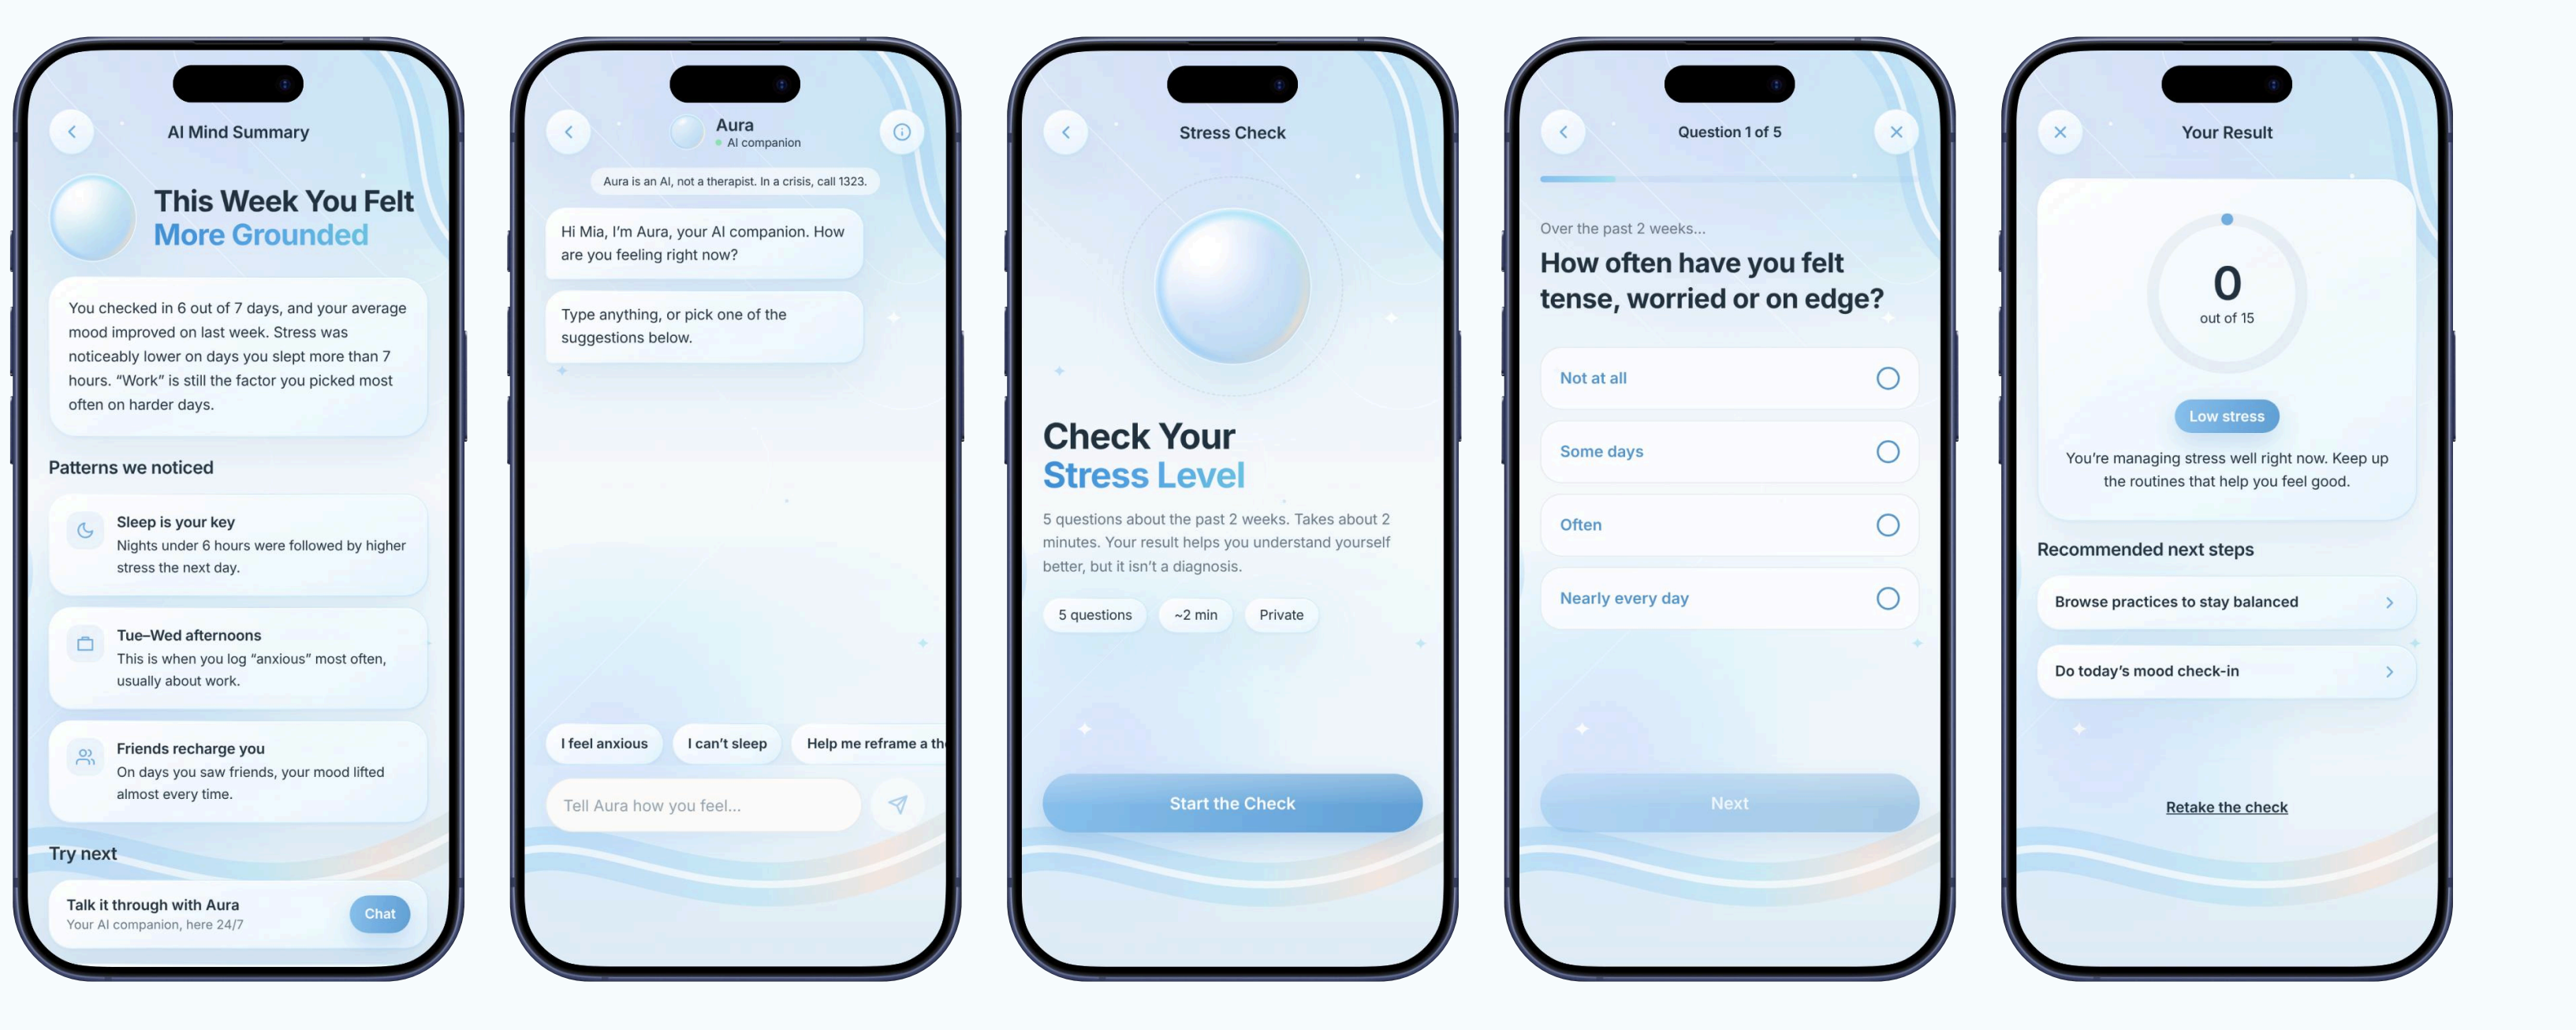
Top influencing factors (this week): Enough sleep — Helps · 82%; Seeing friends — Helps · 68%; Workload — Hurts · 56%

Check-in streak 6 days — Practice 42 min

TIP FOR NEXT WEEK: Wind down 30 minutes earlier on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Your Month in Moods

November 2026 — 0 check-ins in November: 0 Great, 0 Good, 0 Okay, 0 Low, 0 Awful



This Week You Felt More Grounded

You checked in 6 out of 7 days, and your average mood improved on last week. Stress was noticeably lower on days you slept more than 7 hours. "Work" is still the factor you picked most often on harder days.

Patterns we noticed

Sleep is your key — Nights under 6 hours were followed by higher stress the next day.

Tue–Wed afternoons — This is when you log "anxious" most often, usually about work.

Friends recharge you — On days you saw friends, your mood lifted almost every time.

Try next: Talk it through with Aura — Your AI companion, here 24/7

Aura is an AI, not a therapist. In a crisis, call 1323.

Hi Mia, I'm Aura, your AI companion. How are you feeling right now?

Check Your Stress Level

5 questions about the past 2 weeks. Takes about 2 minutes. Your result helps you understand yourself better, but it isn't a diagnosis.

Over the past 2 weeks... How often have you felt tense, worried or on edge?

0 out of 15 — Low stress

You're managing stress well right now. Keep up the routines that help you feel good.
